NOTE TO THE READER

The population and household census was carried out by door to door enumeration in April 2011, with as reference date the 31 March 2011, at midnight. It was based on a specific Law on the Census (03/L–237) approved on 7 October 2010 by the Kosovo Assembly. One of the most important provisions of the law regards data protection and confidentiality of personal information. This law also defines the obligation to conduct a census post enumeration survey immediately following the census enumeration.

Kosovo census is compliant with international methodology recommendations for the 2010 censuses of population and housing prepared by United Nations Economic Commission for Europe in cooperation with the Statistical Office of European Communities (Eurostat). All topics covered and data collected refer to internationally agreed definitions.

All the data reported in this document refer to the 2011 Census. The Census results include data from 34 municipalities. Due to objective reasons the enumeration could not be carried out in the northern municipalities, which has been recognized by the Census Trust Fund Steering Committee. The Kosovo Agency of Statistics will publish estimates for these municipalities later on.

Foreword

FINAL RESULTS derived from the Population Census 2011

The Kosovo Population, households and housing Census was conducted in April 2011. The last valid census in Kosovo has been conducted three decades ago, in 1981.

Census was implemented by the Kosovo Agency of Statistics (ASK), in cooperation with the Municipal Census Commissions (MCC) that were established in the municipalities of Kosovo under the supervision of the Central Census Commission¹.

The census was based on the Law No. 03/L-237 approved by the Kosovo Assembly in October 2010.

The Census has also been based on recommendations of the European Commission for Statistics (ECS) for the 2010 round of censuses and on EC Regulation No. 763/2008 on Population and housing Census adopted by the European Parliament and the Council on July 9, 2008.

In compliance with census law provisions, ASK has released preliminary data for some indicators, on June 29, 2011; the law stipulates that all final data should be published by the end of 2013.

Data collection in the field was carried out from April 1 to April 15, 2011. At the request of some municipalities (7 municipalities), the census was extended for 4 days².

The Census process in Kosovo during all its stages has been closely monitored by an International Monitoring Operation (IMO) consisting of the Council of Europe, the European Commission, United Nations Economic Commission for Europe (UNECE) and United Nations Statistics Division (UNSD). Eurostat was leading the team.

The population census project received technical assistance funded by the European Union³.

Finally we thank all those who contributed to the Population, households and housing Census project.

Glossary of Terms

MAIN DEFINITIONS OF TOPICS/GENERIC VARIABLES

Population

Population corresponds to all persons who usually resided in Kosovo for at least 12 months at the census date, or had the intention to reside in Kosovo for at least 12 months at that date; persons with diplomatic status, foreign military personnel and persons who have their usual residence out of Kosovo are excluded.

Household

A household comprises all persons living in the same dwelling who share their main means of subsistence. Household here refers to the concept of private household, by opposition to collective households such as religious congregations, health centres, orphanages, etc.

Institutional household

A legal body for the purpose of long-term inhabitation and provision of institutionalised care given to a group of persons. The following classification is recommended by Eurostat:

- 1. Educational institutions*
- 2. Health care institutions*
- 3. Institutions for retired or elderly persons*
- 4. Military institutions*
- 5. Religious institutions*
- 6. Other institutions.*

Family

Two or more persons living together linked with family ties of first grade, such as a couple with or without children or a lone-parent with at least one child; in the census definition, a grand-mother with a grand-child, or two brothers without parents are not considered a family.

Building

Any independent structure containing one or more dwellings, rooms or other spaces, covered by a roof and enclosed within external walls or dividing walls which extend from the foundations to the roof, whether designed for residential or for agricultural, commercial, industrial or cultural purposes or for the provision of services.

Housing unit, also called Dwelling

A conventional dwelling or a non-conventional place of usual residence where people are found residing at the time of the census.

Urban

An urbanized geographical area - defined at settlement level - characterized by higher population density and vast human features in comparison to surrounding areas. In Kosovo census an area is defined as urban by administrative decision of the municipality.

Rural

A not urbanized geographical area - defined at settlement level - characterized by lower population density, and typically where much of the land is devoted to agriculture in comparison to surrounding areas. In Kosovo census an area is defined as rural by administrative decision of the municipality.

Population aged 1 year and over

Definition used for all variables relating to the respondent's situation one year or more before the census; ex. Place of usual residence one year before the census cannot apply to babies born during the last year.

Population aged 15 years and over

Definition used for all variables relating to the respondent's situation based on legal age; ex. Legal age to start working, legal age to enter into marriage, etc.

Glossary of Terms

MAIN CHARACTERISTICS OF BUILDINGS

Residential building

Building designed for habitation.

Detached house

Individual house not attached to any other building.

Semi-detached house

Two attached houses.

Row or terraced house

Construction of three or more attached houses in a row, each with separate access to the outside.

Apartment building or block of flats

Apartment building containing three or more dwellings without a separate access to the outside.

Non-residential building

Building not designed for habitation but used at least by one person as usual residence at the time of the census.

Number of floors of a building

The number of floors is counted from the ground floor upwards, including the ground floor itself.

Year of construction of a building

The year when the building was completed or, if any, the year when major constructional changes were finalized.

MAIN CHARACTERISTICS OF DWELLINGS/HOUSING UNITS

Collective living quarter

Collective living quarters include structurally separate and independent places of abode intended for habitation by large groups of individuals or several households and occupied at the time of the census. Such quarters usually have certain common facilities, such as cooking and toilet installations, baths, lounge rooms or dormitories, which are shared by the occupants. Collective living quarters may be further classified into hotels, rooming houses and other lodging houses, institutions and camps.

Conventional dwelling

A room or suite of rooms and its accessories (lobbies, corridors etc.), in a permanent building or structurally separated part thereof which is designed (or converted) for permanent habitation, such as a house or apartment. It has to be surrounded by walls and covered by a roof and it has to have direct access from the street or from a public or communal staircase, passage, gallery or grounds (i.e. when the occupants can enter and leave without passing through another household's accommodation).

Non conventional dwelling (or Other type of housing unit)

Housing unit which is mobile (e.g. a tent or a caravan), semi-permanent (e.g. a hut or a cabin), improvised (e.g. a shuck or a shanty) or not designed for human habitation (e.g. a garage, a shop, a natural shelter) but which is used at the time of the census as the usual residence of one or more persons.

Homeless

People with no shelter (sleeping rough) or with no place of usual residence who move frequently between various types of accommodations.

Inhabited dwelling (also called Occupied dwelling)

The dwelling is inhabited by persons belonging to the census population (housing unit where one or more persons are usually living), regardless of whether or not they were temporarily absent on census day.

Occupied by residents not to be enumerated

The dwelling is inhabited by persons who do not belong to the census population, such as diplomats and their family members; foreign military personnel; persons usually living abroad; people whose usual residence is in another place; etc.

Reserved for seasonal/occasional stay or secondary use

The dwelling is used only for holidays; summer season; seasonal work; or any other occasional stay. It is however not a principal usual residence.

Vacant dwelling

A dwelling is described vacant if it has no usual residents at the time of the census but is available to become the usual residence of at least one person (for example dwellings vacant for rent or for sale, and dwellings of households working abroad, if nobody lives in them).

Not-inhabited or Unoccupied dwelling

A dwelling is considered «Not inhabited» or “Unoccupied” when no one lives in it permanently. There may be persons temporarily present, but who normally live elsewhere (it might be the case of a dwelling reserved for seasonal or secondary use) or persons not included in the census (such as diplomatic personnel) or it might be a vacant dwelling (such as a dwelling available for rent or sale).

Room

Spatial unit of a dwelling intended for living, separated from the other rooms by stable walls (reaching from the floor to the ceiling or roof covering), at least to a height of 2 meters above the ground, of a size large enough to hold a bed for an adult (4 square meters at least) and at least 2 meters high over the major area of the ceiling. Therefore, normal bedrooms, dining rooms, living rooms, habitable cellars and attics, kitchens and other separate spaces used or intended for habitation are counted as rooms (if they correspond to the above mentioned definition). On the contrary, a kitchenette (i.e. a kitchen of less than 4 square metres), verandas, utility rooms (e.g. boiler rooms, laundry rooms) and lobbies are not counted as rooms; nor do bathrooms and toilets (even if they are more than 4 square metres). Rooms without windows (e.g. cellars below ground) are not included, unless they are functionally used for domestic purposes (e.g. internal bedrooms with no windows). Rooms separated from the dwelling but functioning with it and usable by the household are considered part of the dwelling and are included in the total number of rooms.

Rooms, including rooms for business and professional purposes

Rooms of a dwelling intended for living together with rooms of the housing unit used for business or professional purposes.

Piped water from a public service

The water is piped (comes from taps) and distributed by a community provider (example the municipal water supply system).

Piped water from non-public sources

The water is piped (comes from taps) but is not distributed by a community scheme. This is the case where water is pumped into the house through a pipe from a well (especially in rural areas) or from a natural waterfall (especially in mountain areas)

Piped water within the building but outside the dwelling

Access to the water is outside the housing unit and might also be shared with other dwellings within the building.

Piped water outside the building

Access to the water is available only outside the building.

No piped water available

There is no piped water available at all (neither in the housing unit nor outside the building).

Flush toilet outside the dwelling but in the building

A flush toilet is available within the building but outside the housing unit. Access to the toilet might also be shared with other dwellings within the building.

Flush toilet outside the building

Access to a flush toilet is available only outside the building.

No flush toilet available

There is no flush toilet available (especially in rural areas) and dry toilets (so-called ‘latrines’) might be used.

Glossary of Terms

Fixed bath or shower

Access to at least one fixed bath or shower available in the dwelling.

No fixed bath or shower

There is no bath or shower available in the dwelling.

Kitchen

A kitchen of at least 4 m² is available in the dwelling.

Kitchenette

A kitchen smaller than 4 m² is available in the dwelling.

Cooking facilities provided in another type of room

For example, places where people cook on a wooden stove placed in a living-room.

No cooking facilities

There is no cooking facilities at all in the dwelling.

Central heating from a public heating centre

Central heating provided from a community heating centre. This can be the case only in Prishtinë/Priština and Gjakovë/Đakovica municipalities who have such type of centralized heating distribution system.

Central heating from an installation in the building or in the housing unit

Independent central heating boiler within the dwelling or within the building.

Stove

A portable or fixed apparatus that furnishes heat for warmth, cooking, etc., commonly using coal, oil, gas, or wood as a source of power.

Fireplace

The part of a chimney that opens into a room and in which fuel is burned or any open structure, usually of masonry, for keeping a fire.

Portable electric heater

A portable apparatus that furnishes heat for warmth and uses electricity as a source of power.

Other type of heating

For example solar heating system.

No heating at all

There is no heating system available in the dwelling.

Main type of energy used for heating

In case more than one sources of energy is used, the most commonly used is reported.

Wood

Firewood suitable for fuel.

Coal

Combustible coal suitable for fuel.

Oil

Any category of liquid combustible suitable for heating (oil fuel; fuel residue; petroleum liquid)

Gaseous fuel

Gas suitable for heating (natural gas or gas butane/propane in gas cylinder)

Other type of energy

For example solar energy.

MAIN HOUSEHOLDS ARRANGEMENTSHousehold member

Any person usually resident in the household.

Multi-persons household

A group of two or more persons who may or may not be related to each other and who combine to occupy the whole or part of a housing unit and to provide themselves with food and possibly other essentials for living. Members of the group may pool their incomes to a greater or lesser extent. A household can consist of one or more families.

One-person household

A person who lives alone in a separate housing unit or who occupies, as a lodger, a separate room (or rooms) of a housing unit but does not join with any of the other occupants of the housing unit to form part of a multi-person household.

Non-family household

A dwelling where a person lives alone or shares it exclusively with unrelated people or people not belonging to a family according to census definition, for example, roommates or unmarried partners, brothers, etc.

One-family household

A household composed of only one family.

Husband-wife family, partners with marriage certificate

A family where at least a legal couple husband-wife is present, with or without children.

Husband-wife family, partners without marriage certificate

A family where at least an informal couple husband-wife is present (not legalized union), with or without children.

Lone father family

A family where the parent is a male, without partner but with at least one child.

Lone mother family

A family where the parent is a female, without partner but with at least one child.

Families according to childrenWithout resident children

A couple husband-wife (legalized union or not) living without any of their children.

With at least one child aged less than 25

A couple husband-wife (legalized union or not) living with at least one of their children whose age is lower than 25 years.

With youngest child aged over 25

A couple husband-wife (legalized union or not) living with at least one of their children, the youngest of them being aged 25 years or over.

Head of household

The person who was declared as the reference person in the household. Ties of all other household members are given in relationship to this person. For example, if the head of household is «Mr White», his partner living with him will declare herself «wife of Mr White»; his male sibling living with him will declare himself «brother of Mr White» and the wife of this sibling shall declare herself «sister-in-law of Mr White».

Family status

The position of a person in an existing family, depending on its partner or hierarchical relationship: ex. Husband; Wife; Child; Lone parent; etc.

Married partner

The male or female partner of a legalized union in the family.

Partner without marriage certificate

The male or female partner of a non-legalized union in the family.

Lone parent

A father or a mother with at least one child, but living without his/her partner.

Glossary of Terms

Without a partner in the family

The lone parent has no ties with any partner.

With a partner living outside Kosovo

The lone parent lives without a partner, but there are still ties with the partner who lives outside Kosovo.

Child under 25 years of age

At least one child is aged 24 years or less.

of both parents

The child is living with both parents.

of only one partner

The child is living with only one of its parents.

of lone parent without a partner in the family

The child is living only with the father or mother, and the parent has no partner anymore.

of lone parent with a partner living outside Kosovo

The child is living only with the father or mother, but the parent has still a partner living out of Kosovo.

Child aged 25 Year or over

The child is 25 years old or more.

Person not in a family

The person is not living within a family as by census definition.

Age

Age is counted in completed years; ex. Persons of age 25 comprise all persons who already celebrated their 25th birthday at the census date; new-born children who did not reach the first birthday are aged 0

Relationship to the head of household

Husband-wife with marriage certificate

Husband or wife of head of household, with legalized union

Husband-wife without marriage certificate

Husband or wife of head of household with non-legalized union (de facto union socially recognized as a marriage).

Second wife

Second wife of the head of household who is also living with his first wife.

Son/daughter

Son or daughter of the head of household.

Son-in-law/daughter-in-law

Son-in-law or daughter-in-law of the head of household.

Father/mother

Father or mother of the head of household.

Brother/sister

Brother or sister of the head of household.

Grandson/granddaughter

Grandson or granddaughter of the head of household.

Other relative

Other relative of the head of household; ex. grandparent, uncle/aunt, brother-in-law/sister-in-law, nephew/niece, cousin, etc.

Not a relative

The household member is not at all related to the head of household; ex. Friend, host, servant, home-health aid, person under custody, etc.

MAIN CHARACTERISTICS OF HOUSEHOLDSTenure status

The arrangement under which the household occupies the housing unit.

Other form of tenure

The household occupies all or part of the housing unit under some other form of tenure; ex. when the housing unit was provided to the household free of charge by an employer or by a relative.

Land in ownership or in use

All land surface either in ownership or in use by the household; the land recorded is not necessarily located in the same municipality where the household lives, it can be also located in another municipality in Kosovo

MAIN CHARACTERISTICS OF PERSONSSex

Refers to the gender of the person.

Mother's place of usual residence at respondent's birth

The place where a person was supposed to be grown at his/her birth. This variable replaces the usual «place of birth» variable because in Kosovo, many children are born in hospitals located in big urban centres and the place of birth is less indicative than the place of residence of the mother at the moment of the child's birth.

Ethnic/cultural background

Reference to the identity of a group of people whose members identify with each other through a common heritage, consisting of a common culture and customs, including a shared language or dialect.

Religion

Collection of cultural systems, belief systems, and worldviews that relate humanity to spirituality and, sometimes, to moral values.

Mother tongue

The first language a person has learned from birth and is still able to speak.

Country of citizenship

The State with which an individual has a particular legal bond, acquired by birth or naturalization, whether by declaration, option, marriage or other means according to the national legislation.

Current activity status

The activity status according to ILO definitions divides the population into three groups: employed, unemployed and inactive persons. The employed added to unemployed constitute the active population, also called the labour force.

Economically active

The economically active population comprises all persons of either sex, and above a certain age, who furnish the supply of labour for the productive activities (falling in the production boundary of the system), during a specified time-reference period. It includes all persons who fulfil the requirements for inclusion among the employed (employees or self employed) or the unemployed.

Employed

A person is considered to be employed if he or she worked for at least one hour in the reference week, or did not work due to holiday, illness, etc. but is normally in employment. Persons on long term absences as e.g. women on parental leave are included in the category of employed persons if they have a formal attachment to the job.

Unemployed

A person is considered to be unemployed if he or she is not employed in the defined sense, is taking active steps to look for work, and is able to start work at short notice.

Glossary of Terms

Not economically active (also called Inactive)

Persons, who are not considered employed or unemployed in the observation period; ex. Full-time pupils, students, housekeepers, pensioners, compulsory military servants, etc.

Main occupation

According to the International Standard Classification of Occupations (ISCO), which is one of the main ILO international classifications. ISCO is a tool for organizing jobs into a clearly defined set of groups according to the tasks and duties undertaken in the job.

Main industry

According to the International Standard Classification of Economic Activities in the European Community (NACE, Rev 1.1). NACE is part of an integrated system of statistical classifications, developed mainly under the auspices of the United Nations Statistical Division, comprising ISIC the United Nations' International standard industrial classification of all economic activities. This classification refers to the main economic activity or the main service provided by the employer for whom a person works.

Main source of livelihood in the year before the census

The financial means whereby one lives or maintains a family or a group.

Work

Any productive or operative activity aimed especially as a means of earning one's livelihood.

Property, investments

Includes rent of a real estate, financial interests, profits from financial transactions, etc.

Pension

A pension is a fixed sum paid regularly to a person, typically following retirement from employment and managed by a State Agency (pension fund).

Other transfers

Includes unemployment benefits, sickness and maternity allowances, scholarship.

Remittances

A remittance is a transfer of money by a foreign worker to his or her home country.

Support by other persons

Excluding remittances.

Other sources

Includes gambling gains, inheritance

Symbols

%	Percentage
‰	Per-thousand
1-4	A simple class of integer numbers; ex. from 1 to 5, excluding 5
90+	Last class of this variable; ex. persons aged 90 years and over
<18	First class of this variable; ex. persons aged less than 18 years
0.0-5	Classes with real numbers (not integer); ex. 0 to 5 ares, where values can have decimals until 5, like 2.5, but are integer at 5
:	Data not available; ex. When data for a given settlement are too small to be published without breaching the confidentiality.

Labels

Not available	If data were not reported during data collection, they are said "Not available"
Not applicable	If data presented in the table do not concern a certain category, they are said "Not applicable"; ex. Male for data on children delivered

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

About the Census

Census is the key statistical activity that provides the opportunity to get more comprehensive information on the population at a given time.

It is the most important source of data on the size and socio-economic conditions of a country.

The Census, starting from its planning and implementation, as well as data processing, analysis and dissemination, is one of the most important and complex activities of a statistical agency, and it's considered as the largest operation of a country in peacetime.

At the same time, census is the largest statistical exercise that we can think of, because it concerns every individual and family in the country.

Thus, census enumeration is the only activity that provides a detailed picture of the population, and it is unique because it covers everyone at the same time the questions are unique, and this facilitates comparing different parts of a country.

The census data at national level will provide for central and local government, institutions and organizations, businesses and interest groups, academic and research institutions, analysts, individuals and other authorities a comprehensive overview that will help them preparing their plans, strategies, analyses and researches such as on: housing, education, health, various services, transportation, drafting of projects etc.

At international level, the census is also essential to assess the state of socio-economic conditions of a country and for monitoring of agreements and multilateral economic and political negotiations.

Census is also used as a benchmark for many other statistical series such as population estimates and projections.

The Census further represents a very important element of the statistical infrastructure itself, as its results enable drawing proportional samples for each survey having households as basic unit.

The Census also enables capacity building and its implementation represents a crucial undertaking to upgrade the know-how of a statistical institution in itself.

Legislation

Preparation of the legislation was extremely important to implement a successful Census.

The Kosovo Assembly on 11. 07.2003 adopted the first Census Law no. 2003/16.

This law paved the road for the implementation of the Census in Kosovo.

Under this Law and following the practices of other countries, the official institution entrusted for carrying out the population census was the Kosovo Agency of Statistics.

With the approval of the Regulation by the European Commission and the Council of Europe no. 763/2008 (June 9 2008) the EU countries, candidate countries, as well as potential candidate for EU integration, are obliged to respect and apply the methodology under this Regulation for the 2010 round of censuses.

In this Regulation are specified definitions, such as: population, dwellings, buildings, resident population etc.

Based on the need to revise the Law and harmonize it with EU legislation on the census, the previous Census Law (no. 2003/16) has been modified during the period 2009-2010 with the support of Eurostat and other international organizations.

The Government of Kosovo approved the Census Law on August 4, 2010, while in October 2010 the Kosovo Assembly adopted this Law (no. 03/L-237), incorporating the recommendations of the EU Regulation in question. The Population Census, conducted in April 2011, was based on this Law⁴.

Funding of the Census project

The total cost of the project was estimated to be around 10.7 million €.

The Census Project was funded by the Government of Kosovo and a series of Donors.

Funds were collected in a trust fund that was managed by UNOPS.

Brief background on the censuses in Kosovo

Statistical data for a country are important in time. Usually best practices suggest that the censuses are necessary to be carried out every ten years based on the fact that during this period significant changes occur.

The first Census in Kosovo was conducted in 1948 and subsequently again in 1953, date from which it started to be implemented each decade: 1961, 1971, 1981. In 1991 the census was not conducted in Kosovo; as a consequence of the dismissal of Albanian staff and the application of coercive measures introduced at that time by the former Yugoslavia (Serbia) in all Kosovo institutions including Kosovo Agency of Statistics, the population refused to take part in it.

At that time, the Yugoslav Federal Office (located in Serbia) made assessments to estimate the Kosovo population. This census was neither recognized by Kosovo institutions nor by international ones.

In 2001, Kosovo had just come out of war (1998-99) and had difficulties to organize a genuine census due to the prevailing instability and to the huge population movements (inside and outside of Kosovo).

⁴ For more information see the ASK' website: the Census Law and Report on Population, households and housing Census in Kosovo 2011 (page 6-9)

CHAPTER 1 Background information

Despite the preparations and commitment to conduct the census earlier (between 2008-2010, it must be recalled that Kosovo from mid-1999 had been administered by the United Nations until the declaration of independence on February 17, 2008) international institutions (Eurostat) recommended to Kosovo to respect international standards and to align with the timeline of other regional countries and of the EU in order for Kosovo data to be comparable.

Thus, the census in Kosovo took place on April 1, 2011.

Planning and consulting

Usually censuses take place at the beginning of every decade in order for data to be comparable with previous censuses and to be harmonized with the countries of the region or even beyond.

Due to the complexity, high budgetary cost, security situation on the ground etc, population censuses are usually carried out in every decade.

In Kosovo, the need for a census was more than necessary because the last census was carried out three decades ago, while during this period there were large movements of population from rural areas to cities and abroad.

Selection of the topics to be included in the 2011 Census, was done after consultations with users and based on the Census Law in the Republic of Kosovo no. 03/L-237 (October 2010)⁵.

During compilation/drafting of the questionnaires there were many requests from the data users for additional (detailed) questions, and a large part of them compliant with international recommendations were implemented.

Also in the formulation of the questionnaires and in their finalization, core and non-core topics were implemented as recommended by the European Commission of Statistics (ESC) for the 2010 round of censuses and based on the Regulation of European Parliament and of the Council of July 9, 2008 on Population and housing Census No. 763/2008.

Since the Census was carried out under European standards, the Census data represent a crucial positive step forward among all processes through which Kosovo must pass to join to the European Union as well other international organizations. Internationally recognized Census represents an important criterion for Kosovo for its EU6 integration.

⁵ For more information see the ASK' website: Report on Population, Households and Housing Census in Kosovo 2011 (page 17-18)

Methodology

The population census in Kosovo was carried out according to traditional methodology: data were collected on questionnaires, by visiting every household. The forms were filled out by enumerators. Enumeration in collective buildings was carried out by a special group of enumerators. During the census there were three main types of questionnaires: R1-dwelling questionnaire, R2- household questionnaire and R3- individual questionnaire. In frange of the census, an attempt to collect some data about the population living abroad for more than 12 months was done, using a supplementary form (S1 form). All operational and methodological phases were previously tested, by conducting three (3) pilot censuses⁶.

Awareness campaign

In order to inform the population on Census Project, awareness campaigns has used all possible forms of awareness and communication channels and media (through television, radio, posters, billboards, brochures, leaflets, debates, interviews, articles, etc..).

ASK also set-up a working group to deal only with the awareness campaign.

During the field campaign, the awareness group had discussed and visited the municipalities of Kosovo, including a large number of rural settlements.

In order to disseminate information on the census to all non-majority communities represented in Kosovo, 13 non-governmental organizations, mainly from these communities, have been also involved through a special grant. They represented six ethnic communities and seven mixed communities.

Internet was also used as important information tool in the awareness campaign. The website REKOS 2011 was developed within the ASK' web portal on the Internet (special link), where basic information about the census was continuously displayed and updated, and where users could post their questions and get on line answers, providing additional information⁷.

Fieldwork

As planned, Census had started at the set time, on April 1, 2011, with as reference date 31 March 2011, at midnight. About 6000 people participated in the fieldwork. Almost all staff had been equipped with identification cards (with photographs, sealed by their respective municipality).

⁶ For more information see the ASK' website: the Census Law and Report on Population, Households and Housing Census in Kosovo 2011 (page 20-21)

⁷ For more information see the ASK' website: Report on Population, Households and Housing Census in Kosovo 2011 (page 19-20 and 42-55)

CHAPTER 1 Background information

But they were also equipped with other identifying equipments such as: vests, bags, and other documents with clearly distinctive signs, in order to make easier for the citizens to identify them as enumerators.

The dynamics of the progress of the project was under constant monitoring of ASK (reports were received from municipalities and from the ASK' staff - supervisors and coordinators).

In such vast projects unexpected problems can always appear. Although some isolated cases could be reported, most of them have been solved thanks to the close monitoring organization put in place and ASK evidenced no case, that might have had negative impact on the whole process⁸.

Post-enumeration survey

Census was followed by post-enumeration survey that took place between April 24 and April 29, 2011. The purpose of this survey was to measure the coverage and content errors; indeed, no population census is perfect and mistakes can occur in all phases of Census operation.

Errors in the Census can be classified into two broad categories - coverage errors that arise due to omissions or duplication of persons or housing units in Census count, and content errors arising in inaccurate reporting or identifying characteristics of individuals, households and housing units in the Census.

The Census Law adopted in Kosovo included the implementation of the Post-enumeration Survey (PES) shortly after the Census counting, for a period of one week and in a sample of 0.5% of the population⁹.

Comprehensiveness and quality of the data

Based on available data, various reports, comparison of data from other sources, the Census process is deemed successful.

In later stages ASK will also do other tests and in late 2013 when it will do the final publications, it will also prepare the final report.

Central Census Commission could not establish Municipal Commissions in three (3) Kosovo municipalities: Zvečan/Zvečan, Leposaviq/Leposavić and Zubin Potok, since the municipal leaders of these municipalities had no legitimate capacity in their function, having not been elected through official Kosovo electoral process.

⁸ For more information see the ASK' website: Report on Population, Households and Housing Census in Kosovo 2011 (page 23-24)

⁹ For more information see the ASK' website: Report on Population, Households and Housing Census in Kosovo 2011 (page 40)

The absence of MCCs in the northern area resulted in the non participation of these municipalities in the census, since the selection of enumerators and controllers, according to the Law was the responsibility of municipalities.

In order for these municipalities to participate in the census, the Steering Committee of the census Trust Fund had proposed that UNOPS, with professional and technical support from the Statistical Agency, would organize the census in these municipalities, under the same methodology, applied in other parts of Kosovo.

Numerous discussions (headed by the European Commission) have taken place with representatives of the Serb community in this part, and even an additional time was given to them, but with no concrete results. Therefore, these municipalities are not included in the census in Kosovo, carried out in April 2011.

Data processing

The first activities following the implementation of the census consisted in the collection and storing of census materials according to a previously prepared plan. After that started the coding of information collected as text in the questionnaires, regarding type of school, occupation and activity sector of the employer.

This coding used international classifications and enables reliable comparison of data on the level of education, economic activity and various occupations.

Coding began in mid June 2011 and was done in parallel to the data electronic capture. The coding ended in December 2011.

Territorial division

Kosovo¹⁰ has in total 37 municipalities and 1467 settlements. Kosovo is divided into two territorial levels: municipal and settlement levels.

Therefore, data derived from the census will be published up to the level of settlements (at later stages).

For the needs of the census, a settlement has been divided into smaller areas that have been called Enumeration Areas (EAs).

International support

By signing an agreement with international institutions about the monitoring of the process (on March 29, 2006) Kosovo committed itself to implement the census according to international and European standards.

¹⁰ April 2011

CHAPTER 1 Background information

Under this agreement the role and tasks of the international monitoring operation (IMO) for the Census process were specified.

Monitoring on the ground - during the period 1 to 22 April 2011, the international monitoring mission was composed of 1-3 permanent members in the ASK' central office, and has monitored the process closely, where were also engaged 28 international observers on the field.

Technical assistance

Kosovo Agency of Statistics has had several projects of EU-funded international technical assistance. The first project was implemented in the period 2006-2008 by a consortium composed of: Istat, the Italian National Institute of Statistics, INSTAT of Albania as well as CIRPS - Sapienza University of Rome.

A second project named EUCEP2011 was launched in May 31, 2010, for a period of 30 months. Lead by Istat, the consortium was also composed of CIRPS- Sapienza University of Rome, ICON Institute Public Sector of Germany, and "Rrota", a local company specialized in communications. In between these two long-term projects, EU supported under other programmes ad-hoc assistance in many census fields, provided by various experts intervening on a short-term basis.

The census Trust Fund

The Government of Kosovo signed an agreement (June 2010) with the European Commission, on behalf of the Donors, for supporting the census project through financial contributions placed by all participants in a Trust Fund. Government money as well as Donors' financial contributions were gathered in the Trust Fund, and all census expenses were coming from this source only, under the strict supervision and approval of the Trust Fund Steering Committee, of which each Donor was a member with equal rights.

The role of this Committee was to: provide the financial contributions, monitor the processes, the budget, approve the payments and other important activities.

United Nations Office for Project Services (UNOPS)

The Trust Fund Steering Committee entrusted UNOPS to manage the census Trust Fund. The Steering Committee monitors and approves all financial commitments and disbursements made by UNOPS from the trust funds.

UNOPS was also given the responsibility for implementing all procurement of materials and services needed to implement the project. UNOPS executed all procurement processes and staff expenditures based on the plan approved by the Steering Committee and on its own UN procurement rules.

Challenges of the census process

Considering the fact that the last census in Kosovo was carried out in 1981 and that enormous changes have occurred since then in the ways to conduct such operation - change of methodology, equipments, programs, methods of data processing¹², cleaning, dissemination etc. – the undertaking represented a challenge in itself for the Agency of Statistics.

Also, a small number of staff only had some experience from the 1981 Census, but completely with different methodology and technological equipment.

Data dissemination

The census process is a complex project that must pass through several stages, following the data entry in the database, during the period February-August 2012 were made: consistency control, editing and imputation, corrections, verifications, quality-controls, PES evaluations, tabulations, translation and design of these publications and of the data in the database.

Data dissemination will be carried out in the format of printed publications¹³ and in electronic format. A major work was done in preparation of a database that will be available in electronic format where users can obtain data and create tables according to their needs. The data can be downloaded into PDF and Excel format for further analysis.

All 2011 Census data, will be available to the public or the users free of charge, including print and electronic publications, that can be found on the ASK' website. Publications and databases will be available in three languages: Albanian, Serbian and English.

Online service

Data users will have the opportunity to receive the census data through online service. Data users can create hundreds of tables based on all responses provided during the census in questions and sub-questions.

¹² Remind that in earlier censuses data processing and analysis was done out of Kosovo (Belgrade)

¹³ For more information see the publication plan on the ASK' website.

CHAPTER 1 Background information

ASK has prepared a guideline and tips for using these data. Also, data users can find additional information on the census. In order to be the first point of contact for technical problems associated with the use of census data provided from Kosovo census, users can address ASK through contacts provided below.

Requests for specific data

Based on the laws on statistics, population census and the law on the access to official documents, the data collected from census are confidential data.

When required data are not made public, for the needs of specific researches the users can make a request for specific data (aggregated only) without breaching confidentiality of the data. Elaboration of such personalized data have to follow other instructions issued by ASK.
